

CLAIM OR CLAIMS

1. What I claim as my invention is: The design of a very user-friendly desktop keyboard integrating all the mouse functionalities within it and at the same time leaving the existing key groups completely untouched.
2. What I claim as my invention is: The provision of an alternative to mouse clicks, double-clicks and mouse drags via convenient mouse specific keys.